

Presidium Nominations

There are three separate nomination forms: one for the office of District President, one for the First Vice-President and one for Second Vice-President. This process is in conformity with the resolution passed at a previous District Convention which states:

Nominations for the office of District president, and first vice-president and second vice-president shall be made in the following manner.

a. Each voting congregation shall be entitled to nominate from the clergy roster of Synod up to two ordained ministers as candidates for president.

Each voting congregation shall be entitled to nominate from the clergy roster of the District up to two ordained ministers for first vice-president, and up to two ordained ministers for second vice-president.

b. The secretary of the District shall mail to each voting congregation of the District ballots for nominating these candidates.

c. Each nominating ballot shall be signed by the president and secretary of the voting congregations and shall be sent to the District secretary.

d. The District secretary shall report to the District in IDE TODAY or some other public forum the names and tallies of all ministers who have received nominating votes for the offices of president, first vice-president and second vice-president.

Please note that these nomination forms must be received by the Secretary on or before January 30, 2015.
