

The 10 Commandments

IDE Confirmation Retreat

October 7-8, 2016

Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca

The Two Tables of the Law

We will go through what the Ten Commandments actually say and split them into two tables. 1. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind. The first commandment is the foundation of all Ten Commandments. The final nine go into detail on how we should fear, love, and trust in God above all things. The first three commandments teach us specifically how to fear, love, and trust in God. 2. Love your neighbor as yourself. This commandment summarizes the final seven commandments. God loves his creation, so we love one another. Christ did not come to be served, but to serve, so we too serve one another. The Fourth Commandment sets the stage for the second table of the law.

The Uses/Functions of the Law

We know what the Law is. But do we know why? We will learn how the Law curbs, shows us our sin, and guides us. The chief function of the Law is to show us our sin and need for a Savior.

The Promises of the Law Verses the Promises of the Gospel

The Law does show that God is good, but the promises are conditional. The Gospel shows that God is good, but it frees us from the conditions of the Law.

Rev. James Preus, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Ottumwa, will be teaching the youth about 10 Commandments during the 2016 Confirmation Retreat.

The retreat will take place beginning on Friday, October 7th at 7pm and going through 3 pm on Saturday. This retreat includes dinner on Friday and breakfast and lunch on Saturday. A complete schedule can be found on the next page.
