for Peace

You are all preparing sermons and teaching lessons as well as devotions and music for the great festival of the Resurrection of our Lord. So am I. I took a look at Luther's preparation in the year 1525. I found a very interesting sequence he used on that blessed day of Easter. He conducted a service of the Holy Supper with corporate Confession and Absolution very early in the morning. Later in the day the church gathered again for its Easter Day celebration. Luther connected both sermons with the theme that Absolution and the Resurrection direct us forward, into the future more so than to the past.

He said:

“When you desire to confess, then be on your guard that you look to, and think about, your future more than your past life...The people only thought of going through the form of confession and never cared how they might live better lives in the future. Therefore, we should turn this around, so that you be wholly concerned about your future; for all the sins you committed before are now forgiven. Therefore you are to see to it, how you may begin a different life, and that you grieve over, and are tired of, your former life.”

Luther carries that same theology into his sermon later in the day. He declares that the resurrection of Jesus from the dead is the holy absolution unto the world. The sins of mankind are paid for in the suffering and death of Christ on the cross. The resurrection dispels the claims of Satan and breaks the bonds of death by the power of the Son of God for fallen mankind. We call this “objective justification.” It is not to be mistaken for universalism (all are saved no matter what they believe). The benefits of Jesus death and resurrection are only apprehended by faith in Him. At the same time there is great comfort in the resurrection of Jesus against the worn down and beaten life of the sinner. Luther said,

“Therefore, we must juxtapose against our sin and death the suffering, death, and resurrection of this man who is called Jesus Christ, almighty, eternal God and sinless, righteous man. If the devil approaches us and says, Look here, see how great your sin is; see, too, how bitter, how terrible is the death you must suffer; then you must counter with, Devil, don't you know the power of my Lord Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection? In him there is eternal righteousness and eternal life; his resurrection from the dead is mightier than my sin, death, and hell, greater than heaven and earth. My death and sin are minute drops, but my Lord Jesus' death and resurrection is a vast ocean.”

Who has said it any clearer than that over the centuries? Holy forgiveness points us to the future. Easter is the declaration that in Christ we have a new life. A life no longer bound to death and damnation. We have a new life free from the consequences of failing God's Law. We have a new life in Christ that grants us peace with God and certainty of salvation. A new life to be lived in the reflection of He who lived and died and lives on. A life of faith, of love for God and for our neighbor. A new life we can look forward to each day and every day on into eternity.

As you prepare for this blessed celebration, may the wonderful proclamation come as you preach, teach and sing. Easter, Holy Absolution, the forgiveness of sins in the Blood of Christ point us to the sure and certain future which is now and yet to come. Which is held in the nail scarred hands of the Risen Savior so as not to let Satan tear us out. To Christ alone be the glory.

Awaiting the Rains

Rev. Dr. Dean F. Rothchild
Assistant to the President

James 5:7-10 states:

Be patient, therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until it gets the early and late rains. You too be patient; strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not complain, brethren, against one another, that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing right at the door. As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

We await the rains of April so the flowers and crops of May and June will appear. Time after time the Lord has to teach us the lesson of patience.

The Lord of the Church, Jesus Christ, is watering and caring for His Church on a daily basis. He gives her all that she needs through Word and Sacrament. She provides faithful shepherds for her flocks in each locale. The Law is preached in sermons. When our tongues speak “and we complain, brethren, against one another,” we are called to repentance. We are directed to go and speak with that person face to face instead of to everyone else.

The Gospel is also preached so that we are told that all sins have been paid and atoned for. As I Peter 1:18-19 puts it: “knowing that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your futile way of life inherited from your forefathers, but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ.” Jesus was battered and beaten, bloodied and killed, in our place and for our salvation. His resurrection declares that the Father has accepted His work on our behalf.

Suffering and even dying for the faith has definitely come in other parts of the world. We may someday experience that in our country as well. The United States of America is at best 45% confessing Christian. Iowa has 42.5% of its population which is unclaimed. There is plenty of work for each of our congregations to be doing. Luke 24:46-47 states: “and He said to them, ‘Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and rise again from the dead the third day; and that repentance for forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.’”

Just as God provides for our sustenance through that which is grown and harvested, so He also provides for the harvest within His Church. Jesus’ promise is this: “And I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades shall not overpower it” (Matthew 16:18). While you engage in “feeding the found” and “seeking the lost,” may you be strengthened and encouraged by the words of I John 5:11-13:

And the witness is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, in order that you may know that you have eternal life.

Youth Leaders' Page

May 2014

Topics and speakers have been decided for our next round of Youth Events. Beginning next fall Pr. Beltz will speak at the Confirmation Retreat on the Lord's Supper. The Senior High Retreat will be led by Pr. Max Mons—he will talk about Apologetics and teach the high school youth to always be ready to “make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you.” In January 2015, Pr. Andrew Richard will speak at the Jr. High Retreat about praying the Psalms. Finally the 5th & 6th grade gathering will focus on the theme “Like Him.”

Apologetics Not Apologies

Senior High Retreat
November 21–22, 2014

High school life provides you with a challenging climate in which the reliability and truth of God's Word is mocked and your faith in Christ is often ridiculed by friends, classmates, or even your teachers. St. Peter implores us to “always be ready to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you” (1 Pet. 3:15). In an effort to help you do just that, our retreat will discuss three of the most common objections to Christianity.

Until He Comes

Confirmation Retreat
October 10–11, 2014

Come and join us as we study how our celebration of the Lord's Supper is not just a private thing we do as Christians. Rather as St. Paul teaches in 1 Corinthians 11:26, the Lord's Supper is the Church's central act of public witness.

“Oh, my God!”

Junior High Retreat
January 30–31, 2015

There are no better prayers and hymns than the ones that are in Scripture. We use the Psalms all the time at church and personally in every time of need. But what do they mean? What is hyssop? Why is David always talking about rocks, caves, and fortresses? Why all the language of shields and battles? And what does it all mean for you? Come learn what was happening to David when he wrote the Psalms and learn from him how to pray them and find refuge in God our fortress.

Higher Things

The mission of Higher Things is to assist parents, congregations, and pastors in cultivating, encouraging and promoting a distinctively Lutheran identity among their youth and young adults. Through summer conferences, youth from around the country participate with hundreds of other Lutheran youth in worshipping as Lutherans, learning as Lutherans, and playing as Lutherans. The theme for the 2014 conferences is “Crucified.” 1 Corinthians 2:2 says “For I decided to know nothing among you except Christ and Him crucified.” Can't get much more Lutheran than that! # Focus on Schools

Lois Warnsholz
Assistant to the President—Schools

May 2014

IDE schools needing principals for the 2014-15 school year include Trinity, Cedar Rapids; Central, Newhall, Community, Readlyn.

Those needing teachers include: Trinity, Davenport; LIS, Williamsburg; the possibility of others as teachers from three schools also have calls to other schools at the time this is written.

Those who have teachers who have accepted calls include: Trinity, Davenport and Dubuque, Dubuque both have CUNE grads.

With the Iowa legislature still in session it is not known if there will be additional funding for transportation and textbooks for next school year as has been requested. There will continue to be work regarding an ESA (Education Savings Account) during the off session months.

On my mind is the fact that we have a school closing in IDE with a closing service on Sunday, June 1. And sad to say this is not an unusual event or discussion this time of the year among LCMS schools. Clemons Lutheran School operated by St. John's Lutheran Church determined they could no longer financially support the school with declining enrollment. And most reading this certainly understand that. We praise God for the work that has been done in this school, for the committed congregation members, for the dedicated teachers and principals, for the parents of the students and the students themselves.

Lutheran schools in IDE will have the opportunity to "purchase" materials that they might be able to use at their schools. This will occur on one day in June – to be announced.

Society's Preoccupation with Body Image, Weight Focus of New Program

In today's society, preoccupation with body image and weight is not uncommon, but it can lead to unhealthy eating and exercise habits that contribute to Eating Disorders.

Cigna Behavioral Health has created a program to connect with and care for members who have an Eating Disorder diagnosis. The Eating Disorder program is available to Concordia Health Plan (CHP) members through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP)*.

Eating Disorders are very real and serious illnesses with underlying physical and psychological causes. Cigna has years of experience in helping mental health professionals and families by providing resources and working as a team to manage such disorders.

A simple set of questions for checking your heart health might also help predict your stroke risk, a new study suggests. The finding hints that even small improvements to your lifestyle might help prevent strokes.

Stroke is the fourth leading cause of death nationwide. It occurs when blood vessels that supply the brain become ruptured or blocked. When blood can't carry nutrients and oxygen to brain cells, the cells stop functioning and die.

A list of 7 key health factors—called Life's Simple 7 (LS7)—was developed by the American Heart Association to assess health status. LS7 score is measured by looking at the 7 factors: physical activity, diet, weight, blood pressure, blood sugar, cholesterol and smoking. Each of these factors can be categorized as ideal (high score), average (medium score) or poor (low score). A high score on the LS7 has been linked to low rates of cardiovascular disease and death.

NIH-funded scientists tested to see if the LS7 score could also assess stroke risk. They studied nearly 23,000 people with an average age of 65 years. The researchers found that each "better" category for overall LS7 score corresponded to a 25% drop in stroke risk. Even participants with only one "ideal" factor had a lower stroke risk compared to those with none.

Health status varied widely for each of the 7 factors. For example, most participants (84%) had an ideal status for smoking, but none (0%) had an ideal diet.

The findings suggest that you might reduce stroke risk by improving 1 or more of these 7 factors. Get active; eat healthy foods; have a healthy weight; don't smoke; control cholesterol; manage blood pressure; and keep blood glucose in check. Learn more about Life's Simple 7 and use the free assessment tool at this American Heart Association website: <http://mylifecheck.heart.org/>.

IOWA DISTRICT EAST

Pastor Herman P. Greif and Pastor Julius Studt

Within the IDE Archives file for Trinity Lutheran at Davenport, Iowa there is a three page handwritten document which identifies no author, but contains information about Pastor Herman P. Greif and Pastor Philipp Studt. The information is written up in brief statements and sometimes the handwriting is unclear. However, to give our IDE membership a chance to know a little about these pioneering pastors of the Iowa District, your IDE Archivist is making this document available to you for your information.

Introduction to Pastor Herman P. Greif

Rev. Herman P. Greif was born at Giddings, Texas on 20 June, 1874, son of Rev. Albin D. & Louise Grief. He completed his studies at Concordia Seminary-Springfield, Illinois in 1895. He was serving as pastor at Greens Creek and Warrenton, Texas when he accepted the call to Trinity Lutheran in Davenport and was installed on the 18th Sunday of Trinity, 1897. His father was the senior pastor of the congregation. Rev. Herman Greif served as assistant pastor and was also given the added tasks of assisting in teaching at the parochial school and serving as missionary to the city of Davenport. The result of his missionary work in Davenport was the founding of Holy Cross Lutheran Church, of which he was called to serve as pastor in 1900. Pastor Greif accepted a call to St. Paul-Williamsburg in 1913, where he served until 1935, at which time he resigned due to poor health and continued living in the Williamsburg area. In 1939, he became the pastor at Trinity-Conroy, where he served until 1945, at which time he resigned due to poor health and old age. Pastor Herman Greif died at West Allis, Wisconsin on 06 July, 1959, and was buried at the Fairmont Cemetery in Davenport.<sup>i</sup>

Introduction to Pastor Julius Studt

Rev. Philipp Studt was born at Belleville, Illinois on 07 January, 1841, son of Philipp & Margarete Studt. While studying for the ministry at Concordia Seminary-St. Louis, he was assigned as a vicar to Rev. J.J. Döscher in Iowa in 1866. He did not return to St. Louis to finish his studies, but, due to the great need for laborers in the field of Iowa, received a colloquy interview and ordained and installed as pastor in Luzerne on 07 May, 1866. Out of Luzerne, he assisted in establishing a number of mission congregations in the surrounding area. Due to health issues, he ended his pastoral service in May of 1905 and moved to Rock Island, Illinois. Regaining strength again, he served various churches until 1907. Pastor Studt died on 20 November, 1913. Burial was at Luzerne, Iowa.<sup>ii</sup>

TRANSCRIPTION OF DOCUMENT

Herman Greif

Assistant at Trinity Davenport. Founded by Prof Selle of Addison. Vom Hof followed him. Then Streckfuss, A.D. Greif. Trinity founded near the railroad track. First had an old building which was used as a school. First church building was finished when Greif came. $40 a month salary. Used a horse and buggy. Had to have double header ~~services in the morning~~ sermon in the morning & evening. Then went to Buffalo in the afternoon often would preach after eating a piece of bread and drink a cup of coffee. Herman Greif assisted at Trinity 2 years, then became missionary to Scott County. 14 ministers in Southeastern Iowa at that time. Factories, like cigar factories, glucose, saw mills, made prospects for the church. When people would go to church from among the Holsteiners working at the factory they would be kidded: "Are you so dumb that you'd go to church." This caused many a timid soul to quit going. Had streetcars drawn by horses and mules. Steamboats on the river regularly. When A. Greif came to Davenport about a block from the parsonage there lived an old man who would say each time the minister went "Damned old Preacher." About 10 years after he became a ~~member of the church~~ Christian. A Greif received several letters warning him to get out of town in 24 hrs. Nothing ever happened. Police did guard the place a while. Had adult membership classes, one numbering 17. (Herman Greif was born in a log cabin in Serbin, Texas. Father died few weeks before he was born. Mother had typhoid. And Greif took him a few months after he was married.) A. Greif was president of the District. A. Greif went to Charter Oak rural.

H. Grief started with 3 in Davenport rented a Methodist Chapel. Started a Sunday School. Ordered to either stop the S.S. or quit the church. Had German S.S. Had to move so rented a vacant Grocery store until the $10.00 a month was below the rent that could be had. Then rented 3rd story of a dance all. When it became too difficult for older ones to climb steps, District Syn. Decided to build a church. A church was organized with 3 voting members. Had SS of 90 Holy Cross Ch. Had a preaching station in the West end. Had 7 places. Buffalo, Blue Grass, Durant, Eldridge, Pleasant Valley. Last 5 were lost because no help was available. At Durant preached on Tuesday eve. Alternating with Eldridge. West end died out and was later started by A. Bostelmann. Greif 16 yr in Davenport. H. Greif was ordained on his father's 25th anniversary in the ministry.

Baumhoefner started Homestead and also Immanuel Wmsbg. [Williamsburg] Started in town of Wmsbg. Also. In Wmsbg. started in the city hall. All three started with schools. In Wmsbg. School was in the rear of the church. Started under Baumhoefner at Conroy with a school. Oxford was tried but it did not flourish. Worked this area among farmers. Williamsburg a town of retired farmers.

Studt

Sent from St. Louis to help Doerscher. Reported at State Center Fall 1865. Found Doescher husking corn. Asked him if he cld [could] husk. Ans. [Answer] That is not why I came. Married 1869 by driving to Homestead in a lumber wagon married by Rev. Schuermann. First parsonage built where now Tatge donated all church property. Salary 300.00. After 38 yrs. when he quit in 1906 received $500.00. Helped out by incidentals. July 4, 1866 preached near Atkins. Traveled on Indian pony furnished by Mission Bd. Then Prairie north here. Had to swim [unclear] with high water. Abt. yr. [About year] later started Eldorado N. of Newhall. Later St. Clair twshp [township]. Had an ass't [assistant] by name of Rev. Herman for a while. He taught school and assisted. Started School right away which Studt taught. Had a teacher most of time. Mission festivals started out in ch. [church]. Crowd too lge [large], so hld [held] outside. Studt was only one who could use English and that poorly. Had a cemetery before Studt came. Much more trouble in the district then now. Work was mostly in German. Did confirm some in English. A Danish settlement South of Luzerne used Studt when they needed a pastor. A Bohemian settlement S. of Luzerne which he also served in German when needed. Luzerne had several saloons. Quite a wild town. Tried one of members for playing cards on the Sabbath days. Hitching racks in front of the church. Had a young peoples society which met in the school house. Courted from there. Studs together quite a bit. Y.P.S. [Young Peoples Society] was principally choir, orchestra or band. Putting on entertainment. Bible study never very strong. First teacher got $200 a year. A teacher drifted in and asked to be hired. Had no teacher so he was hired. Could play organ without notes. Left one night without notice because a girl would not marry him in the congregation. Organ in the church since 1890. Had a reed organ in early days. Janitor service & organ playing, altar clothes laundered by the pastor's wife. Pastor's boys had to ring the bell and bring in wood & pump organ & play organ. Ladies Aid not until after 1906. Prairie chickens used to be trapped around here. Deer. Wolves howled around the log cabins.

Ministry in Motion!

Put Your Ministry in Motion!

Clarity. Alignment. Action. In that order.

God can do “immeasurably more than you can ask or imagine according to His power at work within us” (Eph. 3:20).

Imagine what God can do in and through your ministry. Lutheran Church Extension Fund (LCEF)’s Capital Funding Services (CFS) has developed a campaign process called Immeasurably More. The process takes a congregation or school through four phases:

-Imagine: explore what God is calling you to do.

-Inform: your entire membership will be made aware of the need/opportunity.

-Inspire: your membership will be inspired through worship and God’s Word.

-Immeasurably More: experience God’s work in your lives.

LCEF’s Capital Funding Services consultants design and guide you through a Christ-centered program. Our national staff also can answer questions and provide valuable resources designed to help you meet your goals.

Through your partnership with LCEF, you can celebrate Ministry in Motion! Please call our Ministry Support team at 314-885-6444.

GOLDEN TREASURE TRUTHS

By Rev. Bob Riggert

“He (Elijah) asked that he might die, saying ‘It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers.’ And he lay down and slept under a broom tree.” 1 Kings 19:4-5

There are times when things just don’t go well. There may be minor inconveniences, frustrations, and routine interruptions. There may also be physical or emotional barriers that seem insurmountable. The temptation is to feel sorry for ourselves and lament the unfavorable circumstances. We are tempted to have a “pity party” for one and perhaps invite others to observe and join us in our lament.

Things weren’t going well for Elijah. Elijah had been blessed to witness major demonstrations of God’s power—prophets of Baal defeated, a widow’s son raised from the dead, the hungry prophet and a hungry family miraculously fed. But now all those victories seem to be forgotten as Elijah is on the run from wicked queen Jezebel. Hiding in the desert and huddled under a broom tree, Elijah begs to die. Feeling hopeless in his situation, Elijah gives up on God and himself.

God appears and intervenes. The angel of the Lord touches the prophet and feeds him. At Mt. Horeb “the sound of a low whisper (1 Kings 19:12)—the voice of God—speaks to the prophet. The voice of Hope restores the hopeless prophet. Throughout Scripture there are other Elijah “types” who felt that God had abandoned them: Jeremiah laments and Jonah runs. Without exception God comes and reveals Himself through His Word and brings hope. When we were hopeless in sin, Jesus brought hope through His death and resurrection. The church is blessed to be in the Easter season. We are blessed to see the resurrected Lord appearing to us and assuring us that He is with us now and into eternity. He is risen, indeed!

Like Elijah, we sometimes find ourselves in life’s deserts or under our broom trees. Perhaps there are times of despair. Perhaps crises and depression bring us there and leave us there for seemingly endless periods of time. God always finds us and whispers His word of hope.

After a Lutheran Church Extension Fund presentation at a congregation, an LCEF investor approached me and shared “LCEF helped us through a dark time.” An LCEF loan made it possible for the congregation to continue ministry during a time of uncertainty. The investor also added, “But we’re in the Light now!” Congregations too may find themselves in deserts and under broom trees. Your District’s LCEF Vice President can share information on LCEF loans and services. We thank God for generous and trusting investors who provide the funds for congregation and professional church workers’ emergencies so that they might live and rejoice in the light of Jesus’ resurrection.

Prayer:

He lives to silence all my fears; He lives to wipe away my tears; He lives to calm my troubled heart; He lives all blessings to impart.” Dear Jesus, thank you for the hope You give. Amen.

O AFC is a recognized service organization of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, board of National Missions. The three-fold purpose of O AFC is to:

1. Witness to all who will listen that Jesus Christ, suffered, died and rose again to forgive all sins for all people.
2. Invite the unchurched to the congregations we serve, and invite other youth and adults to join us.
3. Train youth and adults to better share their faith in Jesus Christ as the only way to heaven.

O AFC's FOCUS is to train young people and adults in sharing the Good News that Jesus Christ is Savior of all. This is done through Outreach Weekends held monthly in a local area. Outreach weekends have been held in quite a few churches throughout the district over the past three years. September 13-15 youth and adults gathered at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Manchester, IA. The members of Our Savior housed and fed the group and all who attended received training in sharing their faith in Jesus through singing, drama, puppets, Bible study, and a door to door canvass of Manchester.

Check out www.oafc.org for more information. If your church would like to host a future event, or your youth and adults would like to attend an Outreach Weekend please contact the Fosses at eastiwaoafc@gmail.com or 319-393-6691.

Dr. John W. Kleinig

Dr. John W. Kleinig is retired after teaching for 26 years at Luther Seminary in Adelaide, South Australia. In the last 20 years he has taught in many different Lutheran seminaries in North America and Asia.

Dr. Kleinig is an Old Testament theologian with an M.Phil. and Ph.D. from Cambridge University in England and an honorary doctorate from Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne. His published doctoral dissertation was on The Lord's Song: The Basis, Function and Significance of Choral Music in Chronicles.

Dr. Kleinig's commentary on Leviticus for Concordia Publishing House explores how the people of God share in His holiness through their participation in the divine service. He has published two books on spirituality, a congregational study on Prayer: We Speak to God and a handbook on Lutheran piety called Grace Upon Grace: Spirituality for Today (Concordia Publishing House, St Louis, 2008).

Participation in God's Holiness in the Divine Service According to Leviticus

God instituted the divine service for the Israelites so that by their participation in it they could have access to Him and His blessings here on earth. This course will use the much neglected book of Leviticus to discover how God shared His life-giving holiness with them and to show how this foreshadows our participation in Christ's holiness by our involvement in the divine service of the church.
