President's Piece for Peace

Rev. Dr. Brian S. Saunders
District President

OCTOBER 2018

My blessed brothers and sisters who commit to the nurture and care of God's lambs. As you gear things back up for the season involving schools, Sunday school, bible classes as well as community activities I know you have much to do. For that reason I will not take much of your time with this month's article.

I do want to commend to you a fine book I was lead to this summer. I attended a conference presented by Dr. Kleinig, and as time permitted I was able to ask him a question concerning the topic being discussed. He referred me to a book that is one of the finest and most perspicuous reads I have had for quite some time.

The author is Walther Trobisch, of who I know very little if not anything at all. I do know from the book that he lived in Europe and his wife was Scandinavian. The name of the book is "I Married You." It is an account of a one week lecture he gave somewhere in Africa on the topic of marriage. The impressive thing about it is that it was written in 1971, which means it has stood the test of time. He has marvelous scriptural references laden with practical application for any parish or school. He speaks in 1971 as if he were living in the United States in 2018. His style is easy and his profound insights are both refreshing and contemplative.

It is a book of only 160 pages so it can be read in one easy sitting. I found it to say only what the Holy Scriptures have said on the topic and it is very faithful to our confession. The interlocking stories along with his evening lectures are a classroom in and of themselves. I commend this reading to you and pray it is as fruitful for you as it has been for me. God bless you in all your service in the Kingdom.

President Saunders

Archives

In the past, your archivist has tried to come up with a brief history of a congregation that was disbanded many years ago and no written history seems to have been left behind. If you like to read such histories of congregations that once were active in Iowa District East, this is to inform you that a history has been posted on the IDE website (<http://lcmside.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/A-History-of-St-John-Lutheran-Jefferson-County.pdf>) of St. John Lutheran-Lockridge Township, Jefferson County, Iowa which became a member of the LCMS in 1893 and was disbanded in 1951.

The Changing of the Seasons

Rev. Dr. Dean Rothchild
Assistant to the President

OCTOBER 2018

It won't be long until the leaves will start turning color and falling to the ground. Bright yellows and reds will replace the green leaves which we have had the pleasure of enjoying for many months. The turning and the changing reminds me of repentance, which God works through the preaching of His Law. Peter preached: "Repent therefore and return, that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord" (Acts 3:19). Repentance involves a change of heart. It is a putting to death of the old-Adam and is a life-long, ongoing process for believers in Christ Jesus.

As the leaves turn color so God turns our hearts to admitting who we are, sinners in need of God's forgiveness. We rejoice that the end of repentance is forgiveness of sins received by faith in Christ Jesus alone. As repentance is worked, it reminds me of the words of David who said: "When I kept silent about my sin, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night Thy hand was heavy upon me; My vitality was drained away as with the fever-heat of summer. I acknowledged my sin to Thee, And my iniquity I did not hide; I said, 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord'; And Thou didst forgive the guilt of my sin." (Psalm 32:3-5).

Paul gives us this warning: "Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, that you may be able to endure it" (I Cor. 10:12-13). Our strength in temptation is not ourselves but the grace of God, in and through Christ Jesus our Savior. For He was the "tempted One" who has "done all things well." He overcame the temptation of the devil in the wilderness and went to the cross bearing all of our sins as the perfect Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

God raises up those who have been brought down through the crushing blow of the Law. Jesus dwells only with sinners and He is the one who raises up the fallen. He raises up the one who is on his knees in repentance. He does so because He was on His knees in the Garden of Gethsemane, for us and for our salvation. His blood, which flowed from His side, cleansed and redeemed us from all sin. Christ is both the Victim and the Victor for us and for our salvation.

Our hymnody so richly reflects Christ's work on our behalf. We read: "Thou has suffered great affliction and hast borne it patiently, even death by crucifixion, fully to atone for me; Thou didst choose to be tormented. Then, for all that wrought my pardon, For Thy sorrows deep and sore. For Thine anguish in the Garden, I will thank Thee evermore. Thank Thee for Thy groaning, sighing, For Thy bleeding and Thy dying, for that last triumphant cry, And shall praise Thee, Lord, on high" (LSB, 420, vv. 6-7).

And we hear in one of the great Lord's Supper hymns: "Praise Him, whose love divine gives His sacred blood for wine; gives His body for the feast—Christ the victim, Christ the priest. Alleluia!

Mighty Victim from the sky, Hell's fierce pow'rs beneath You lie; You have conquered in the fight, You have brought us life and light. Alleluia!" (LSB, 633, 2 & 5). May God keep the Christ-centered reality of repentance and forgiveness central in the life of His Church so His people hear: "Be of good cheer, your sins be forgiven you."

Paid In Full

Jan Doellinger

Assistant to the President, Schools

OCTOBER 2018

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding.

(Ephesians 1: 7,8)

My parents owned a grocery store when I was in college. Atkins Cash Grocery. Four aisles and a meat case. It was a "family" business because, besides my parents working there, my two sisters and I helped to get the work done; stocking shelves, figuring out how much to charge for pork and beans and labeling each can, waiting on customers, occasionally eating a candy bar, and even delivering groceries. Not quite like today's Hy-Vee or Fareway, but definitely a "helpful smile in all 4 aisles"!

Since Atkins is a small town and everyone knows everyone else, many of our customers had their own grocery account. We kept a running total of the groceries customers purchased and gave them a bill at the end of the month. Sometimes, when a customer experienced a tragedy such as a death in the family, or loss of a job, my parents would just write the debt off marking the account "PAID IN FULL".

This is what God did with Abram when He called him from Ur (Genesis 12). Abram had lived years as a pagan. In his retirement at age 75, God told Abram to leave his home, his family, and go to this wilderness by the Mediterranean Sea. No air-conditioning. No internet. No cell phone. It was just wilderness and mean people, the Canaanites. Further, God said don't worry about where for sure you will end up. Just go and I will take care of you. Oh, and by the way, you and Sari, your wife, will finally deliver a baby, like the two of you have always wanted. This won't be just any baby. A whole nation will call you "Father" and Sari "Mother".

As crazy as the invitation was, Abram did something even crazier. He said, "OK Lord, I'll do it." Abram was faithful, having no idea where he would end up, having no idea of the particulars. He just went trusting in this "new" God of His. Genesis 15:6 says, "Abram believed the Lord, and He credited it to him as righteousness." Abram was as helpless to help himself as those people in our small town were to pay their grocery bills. Because of Abram's faith and trust, God went ahead and stamped "PAID IN FULL" on Abram's debt.

We, too, have debts. All we have to do is take a look around our apartment, home, school, community, and nation. There are credit card debts, student loan debts, tuition debts, farm debts...the list goes on. But this is not the kind of debt we're talking about. We're talking about the debt we cannot touch. The debt that is too high for us to pay and we're totally incapable of repaying. This debt is so high it is crushing. It will take our life and eventually kill us. It shapes our values and attitudes and hangs over us like a black cloud. Yes, this debt is our sin.

Thankfully, that's not the end of the story. We have some Good News! Regardless of the oppressive debt of our sin, Christ stamps "PAID IN FULL" on our account. Through Christ's death and resurrection all of the sins that would tarnish our relationship with Him and separate us from the "family of faith" have been paid. By believing and trusting in God, we are assured of "forgiveness of sins, life and salvation".

Christ Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. Today is a new day of a relationship with our Savior adoption. Imagine! We are brothers and sisters in Christ! How amazing is that?!?!? So now what? This school year you can celebrate every day because you have a classroom full of children who, along with their parents and siblings, have a debt that has been marked "PAID IN FULL" by their Savior. How will you celebrate with them the retirement of their sin debt today and every day this year? With joy you can tear up the I.O.U.s they have been accumulating – the petty insults, hurtful words, offenses small and large – by which they have hurt others...and you! Your calling as a teacher/administrator/director means you GET to minister to these fellow believers and share this Good News of debt forgiveness through Christ. You are strengthened by the forgiveness of Christ, now empowered to live a worry-free, anxious-free, fingernail-chewing-free, bold-in-the faith life right here and now. We can afford to forgive; after all, we have been forgiven!

God has stamped you! You are His! Have a great remainder of the school year in the Lord!

FACT OF THE MONTH

Drug overdose deaths continue to increase in the United States.

- From 1999 to 2016, more than 630,000 people have died from a drug overdose.
- Around 66% of the more than 63,600 drug overdose deaths in 2016 involved an opioid.
- In 2016, the number of overdose deaths involving opioids (including prescription opioids and illegal opioids like heroin and illicitly manufactured fentanyl) was 5 times higher than in 1999.
- On average, 115 Americans die every day from an opioid overdose.

If you or a loved one have a drug use problem, please seek help by contacting ASAC, 319-390-4611 or website: <http://www.asac.us/>

Iowa District East Confirmation Retreat OCTOBER 5-6

If God already knows what we need, why do we need to ask him? What does prayer do? Prayer is often a vague topic. Thankfully, true prayer is not based on what we can figure out but on what our Lord has revealed in the Bible. His promises give us things to pray for, a form for prayer, and certainty that we have a God who loves us. We will also contrast the Lord's Prayer with prayers from other religions to help us see the gift we have in Jesus Christ!

Join us October 5-6 for this year's Iowa District East Confirmation Retreat. Pastor Troy Peperkorn (St. John - Reinbeck) will be leading us through The Lord's Prayer. As always, we'll be learning, but also be having a ton of fun! To register, head on over to the Iowa District East website to register online or download a registration form to mail in. Be sure to check out the what-to-bring list and complete a health form!

FALL WORKDAY: November 3: 9AM - 4PM

Mark Saturday, November 3rd down to come out and volunteer at Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca for the day. Our official projects are to be determined, but we are initially planning to do some repairs, renovations, and landscaping at the Tree Village. We may also work on the campfire pit behind the Omega Lodge. Let Paul know you're coming at by emailing sitemanager@iodiseca.org. Lunch is on us!

From the Kids, For the Kids

Each year the camp collects an offering called From the Kids, For the Kids. It's a way that we buy new program equipment here at camp so that kids can have a more enjoyable experience

In just the past few years we've been able to replace all of our canoes at the camp pond, buy new lifejackets and paddles, put in new basketball hoops and paint the basketball court, and improve our rec field and challenge course! THANK YOU for your help in making Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca a more enjoyable facility! On average, our campers donate over $1,000 per summer.

This year, we'll be finishing off the rec field by adding an improved soccer field setup! The other neat this is that we'll share a portion of these donations with another children's ministry in Eastern Iowa. After all, its from the kids, for the kids!

Battle of the Worldviews

What To Expect On the College Campus

---

Sr. High Retreat
November 16-17

---

We will discuss various attacks on the Christian faith and learn how to respond with God's Word and just plain common sense. This weekend retreat will be beneficial for all high school students, even if they are not planning to attend college. We will also provide opportunity for Q & A.

Registration

$45 per student

Register online through EventBrite by visiting <https://2018srhigh.eventbrite.com>, or send your completed order form with a check for $45 to the district office:

IOWA DISTRICT EAST - LCMS
